BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY RECEIVES NATIONAL AWARD

The Bethel Historical Society has been awarded a certificate of commendation from the American Association for State and Local History. Presented at a joint meeting of the Association and the Bay State Historical League at the Colonial Hilton in Northampton, Mass., Oct. 30-Nov. 1, the citation read: "To the Bethel Historical Society for an effective program of preservation, publication and education." The Bethel society was one of seven so honored this year by the Association in New England.

This recognition for the Bethel Historical Society was based on its preservation and furnishing of the Dr. Moses Mason House, a national historic site, the publication of a 24 page special edition of the "Bethel Oxford County Citizen" commemorating the Dr. Moses Mason House and the 200th anniversary of Bethel's settlement, the production of a booklet "Dr. Moses Mason and His House," the creation of an exhibit of artifacts and photographs around the theme "The Family Farm" as part of the History Outreach Project of the Maine League of Historical Societies and Museums with an accompanying booklet, the securing of a grant from the Maine Commission for the Arts and Humanities to microfilm Oxford County newspapers, the development of local history programs for the schools of the area, and the sponsorship of Heritage Day to encourage historical awareness and an appreciation of old time crafts.

M. S. A. D. DIRECTORS MET MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 17

The board of directors of M. S. A. D. #44 held a regular meeting at the Telstar Auditorium on Monday evening of this week.

Howard Cole of the Wheeler Insurance Agency was present and informed the board of certain alternatives available in insurance coverage with special emphasis on theft and burglary. Following Mr. Cole's presentation, the board voted to change its insurance from "named peril" to an "all risks" category, at an approximate added premium of $100 annually. Also theft and burglary coverage is to be provided for musical instruments and band uniforms at a cost of $96 annually; audio-visual equipment at $429 annually; and maintenance garage open stock at $93 annually.

Policy changes concerning preliminary budgeting procedures were given final approval.

Any action on the district "drug" policy was deferred to the regular meeting of Dec. 1.

The board approved the making available of New Testaments, without comment, to the fifth grades of S. A. D. #44 by the Rumford Group of Gideons. A motion to forbid such distribution failed of approval.

Following extended discussion including many comments by those advocating a second assistant boys' basketball coach, the board voted not to approve such a position for the current year.

The board failed to resolve several of the items on the agenda as the 10 o'clock adjournment hour was reached and sufficient votes were not available to extend the session.

Board members absent Monday evening were John Gasser, Bethel, Parker Allen and Milton Mills, Woodstock.

The next regular meeting of the S. A. D. #44 directors is scheduled to be held at the Andover Elementary School on Monday evening, Dec. 1.

All friends and relatives of Ernest and Evelyn Peare are invited to their 50th wedding anniversary at the Rumford Corner VIS Hall, 7:00 p. m., Nov. 22.

COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

Members of the Bethel Fire Department may pick up their checks at the Town Office, the firemen's payroll for 1975 having been received and checks issued.

The Selectmen held their semi-monthly meeting on Nov. 10 and acted on several items of business.

Herschel Wing appeared before the board relative to his 1975 assessment.

Dana Douglass met with the board to discuss Evergreen Road right of way. He was instructed to meet with the property owners concerned and submit a report of any actions taken.

The Selectmen approved the application of John Gasser for a liquor license.

The Selectmen authorized payment of 50% of the audit bill, the other 50% to be paid after Jan. 1. The reason for the action is due to the auditor starting part of the annual audit at the time he was here doing the cash audit. The annual audit is usually done in January or February and would be paid out of 1976 funds.

A schedule of paid holidays for town employees was adopted to include the following: New Year's, Memorial Day, July 4, Labor Day, Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas. If the holiday falls during vacation periods the day must be taken the day preceding the vacation or the day after the vacation ends.

Increased insurance coverage was approved under the owners, landlords and tenants liability policy. Bodily injury increased from $100,000 to $300,000 and property damage $25,000 to $50,000. The increase also covers false arrest.

Asher Runnels asked permission to spend time checking on dogs at large. The request was denied due to lack of funds. The policy of filing dog complaints directly with the Town Office is still in effect.

Tax abatement on $3,500 valuation was granted Walter Newell, he being entitled to a veteran's exemption.

It was approved to pay two tax anticipation notes totaling $125,000. This still leaves two tax anticipation notes outstanding totaling $40,000 to be paid prior to Dec. 31. The Highway Dept. is to submit Earl, the boys, and I visited Ed "Musket" Burnham and family, Andover, Sunday evening.

Earl was called back to Ekco Monday.

Tuesday evening was beautiful and clear—perfect for viewing the lunar eclipse.

We got our first snow last week thought it didn't stay long. It has been many years since I've been as excited about the first snow as my boys are. I often wonder what my folks said that made me believe that shoveling the driveway was so much fun.

"Your opinion of others is apt to be their opinion of you."

CARD OF THANKS

To all my friends who remembered me with their thoughts, words, cards and flowers and prayers during my recent hospital stay and since my returning home, a warm thanks and God bless you all.

The days are numbered before the big day arrives. Thanksgiving will soon be upon us, and with it turkey and all the fixins'.

Our dental exams are almost all completed, we will be starting follow ups on Dec. 1. Thursday most of our children will be attending the clinic where eyes and ears will be tested and needed immunizations given.

Sue Farrar and one of her students, Kim Monzo, joined us on Tuesday. Sue and Kim put on a demonstration class for our students and then had them join in for front rolls, back rolls, cart wheels and bridges. Our thanks to these people for giving us some of their valuable time.

Donations have come from Frances Gunther who sent some toys for the children, and from Jane Barth and her Scouts who brought in some winter boots and clothing.

We had a parent meeting Monday evening to discuss fund raising. Those present were Cathy Littlefield, Sharon Rice, Kay Brown, Jean Monzo, Louise Chapman, Eslyn Gonzalez, Lorraine Viger, Sandra Savage, Louella Cole, and Phyllis Jackson.

Volunteers have been Linda Haegele, Joyce Hoyt, Tracy Plawlock, and Jean Monzo.

JACKSON-SILVER POST & UNIT HOLDS RECEPTION FOR DISTRICT VICE PRESIDENT

One hundred twenty-five friends, relatives and members traveled from over the State, Saturday night to attend the reception honoring District Vice President Sylvia Dunham, at the American Legion home in Locke Mills.

Master of ceremonies, P. D. C. John Howe of Southwest Harbor presided. The dignitaries were brought in and seated at the head table to the tune of Anchors Aweigh by the orchestra and Sergeant-at-Arms. The colors were advanced by Dept. Sgt.-at-Arms Stanley Sargent and Past County Commander Warren Smith, followed by the flag salute, the pledge of allegiance and the Star Spangled Banner, led by Music Chairman, Dorothy West, State Chaplain Ivan Forsythe from Waterville gave the invocation.

Sylvia Dunham, District Vice President, was seated in the chair of honor; on the wall, directly behind her, the 3 by 5 foot Bicentennial Flag made by Mrs. Rowena Dunham. She personally introduced her family, numbering 16. Two sisters and a brother came from New York; her husband, Leland, pinned corsages on the ladies including granddaughter, Chandra.

State Commander Robert Rich, the main speaker, spoke highly of Sylvia, and her contribution to the Auxiliary for 30 years. State Representative, Emily Saunders, was called on for a few words. Others at the head table were: Dept. President Charlotte Cressey of Bath; National Executive Committee member James McMahon of Augusta, and his alternate, Clifford Quincey of Scarborough; Dept. from Sen. Ed Muskie congratulating Commander Lovejoy and the Post for observing Veteran's Day.

An afternoon game party with Warren Smith and Leland Dunham officiating and dance in the evening closed the days activities.

Monday night, Nov. 10, P. D. P. Fannie Cummings, assisted by Cathryn Lovejoy as Sgt.-at-Arms and Sylvia Dunham as Chaplain, installed the Ring McKean Unit No. 151 in West Paris. Comrade Cummings was there to take pictures.

Wednesday evening, the Lovejoys, Dunhams and Cummings were happy to attend the Veteran's Day supper in Bethel, and witness the well deserved recognition given the staff of the Bethel Citizen by the Bethel Post and all present. We can't thank the Brown family enough for all they do to help this patriotic organization to get the right publicity.

In the pouring rain, seven ladies went to South Paris Thursday night and initiated a class of 16 members. We borrowed President Jeri Brooks from Bethel and junior member Ellen Lovejoy officiating at the piano. A supper preceded the ceremony.

The reception for Vice Pres. Sylvia Dunham was a success. Thanks go to all who helped to make it such a nice evening. President Lovejoy announced 100% plus two in the Unit's membership.

Among the congratulations and regrets received were from Senator Muskie, Congressman Cohen and our beloved Margaret Chase Smith.

COMMUNITY CONCERN FOR CHILDREN MET NOV. 12 IN SOUTH PARIS

Dr. Robert Scarlatta, a Norway pediatrician, was the featured guest speaker at the monthly meeting of Community Concern for Children. The well attended meeting was held at the Oxford County Economic Opportunity Council office at Market Square in South Paris on Nov. 12.

After a few brief opening remarks, Dr. Scarlatta answered questions and discussed child abuse and neglect issues. Citing many of his own experiences, he explained the difficulty an M. D. encounters in making a definite determination of cases of child abuse and neglect. The reporting laws for child abuse and neglect and the responsibilities of other professionals were also discussed.

Dr. Scarlatta stated that many problems arise from the lack of training in the skills necessary to be parents. This particularly shows up in poor medical care at home for children.

Mrs. Phyllis Dock, R. N., the Community Education Coordinator for Oxford County Head Start discussed her experiences at the National Symposium on Protecting the Abused, Neglected, and Sexually Exploited Child, which she recently attended in San Diego, Calif. She stated that the workshops at the Symposium also stressed the need for parent and family life education. Another great need was for more involvement by attorney's to establish

MUSKIE ANNOUNCES LEWISTON HEARING NOV. 25

Maine Senator Ed Muskie today announced that his Subcommittee on Intergovernmental Relations will hold a hearing in Lewiston on Nov. 25 to discuss problems Maine citizens have in dealing with the federal government.

"One of the most common complaints that Americans have about the federal government," Muskie said in announcing the hearing "is that it is so big and so complex that it cannot respond to the needs of the people it is supposed to serve."

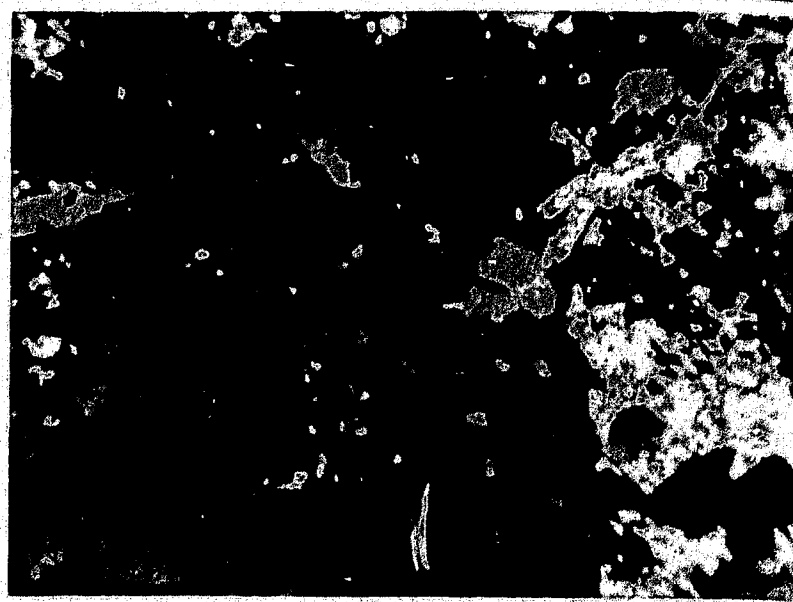

"Because of my concern for a more productive government, I plan to introduce a package of reforms to improve the quality and reduce the costs of government services," Muskie said. "These reforms should help Americans get the maximum amount of services for the tax dollars they pay — something that is not happening now."

Muskie urged members of the public to attend and speak out about their own difficulties in dealing with the federal government.

"The problems and opinions of Maine people will be a valuable guide in drafting reforms to make government more effective and more sensitive to the problems of the average citizen," Muskie said.

The hearing will be held in the City Council Chamber, Lewiston City Hall, beginning at 9:30 a. m.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS OF BETHEL LODGE #97

"The Bloodmobile is Coming"
For the last two years, Bethel Lodge has been one of the top five Lodges in the state in number of pints donated. I would like to see this tradition continued.

Who is eligible to receive our blood? Within the state: just about anyone in a town the size of Bethel. Out of state: members of Bethel Lodge and their families.

Who can give? Anyone can donate to the Masonic Blood Bank. So I urge all Brothers, their wives, and children who donate blood to credit their blood to: Bethel Masonic Lodge #97, Bethel, Maine. So let's see a good turnout when the blood-mobile comes to the Bingham Gymnasium at Gould Academy on Monday, Nov. 24, 1975, from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m. "The pint you give will make you feel as good as the person who receives it."

Fraternally,
Christen J. Angevine
Lodge B. B. Chairman
P. S. I would like anyone who donated blood between 1966 and 1973 to contact me so that I can update my records. You may be eligible to receive a blood donor pin.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corres. —

The days of advancing autumn have come but the weather this week has remained beautiful. We have wandered to endless ridges that stretched away before us, to woods which spread up the valley, to farms, to roads and all across an expanse of land.

The sun seemed to pour down a lavish golden contentment on everything. And the air! The air was indescribable. It made each of our days a gala day. Once we traveled a road which I used to walk or ski on my way to school. That was in 1926-1927 when I'd walk the three miles then build my fire at the school house where I was teaching.

Now there is a stand of pine woods along the road. The old houses have long vanished where the road winds its way through the trees. We stopped at the top of Whittle Hill to explore the "leavings" of a house we once knew well. We even recalled the time the pig destroyed Christiebell, a favorite doll.

Walking on, we again entered the woods. Here beneath the pines it was shadowy and cool, the air pungently scented and the murmur with whispering of branches overhead.

Far down the hill we looked for the Young Cemetery where Eleazer Cole lies buried. It is located in a new growth of oak and pine. I presume when he was buried, there was no forest there. Only one other marker in all the cemetery. That patch of earth is lost now in the growth of tall trees but the plot itself was recently cleared. From the records of the Cole history I found that Eleazer Cole and family migrated to Maine about 1788. On the evening of the Concord-Lexington battle he was mustered into the army as a drummer in Col. Bailey's regiment and marched to Roxbury, Mass. He was soon made a sergeant.

The inscription on his stone reads Sergeant Eleazer Cole, Mil. Rev. War. He lived from 1747 to 1833. This graveyard in the woods is no longer known to most people.

After our stop here we continued beyond, where once there were houses but now just a tangle of trees, vines, and old stone walls angling across the hills. Not much to recall the early settlements except the persistent lilacs which send up shoots year after year.

We came to the bridge and looked to see the river flowing over water-smoothed pebbles so visible below us. They were enticing but far off and unattainable.

Every scampering squirrel, created a tumult of small dry sounds. What a glorious time they must have, way back here, away from crime and election day.

Time now to return, tracing our steps homeward, for a sudden chill descends at sundown. Almost minute by minute, we could feel the air change. Soon the sky would grow velvet and the last of daylight would ebb away. In the darkness the stars would hang low and we had no desire to wait and see, here among the lonely hills.

Club Eight met for the first time this fall at the home of Etta Morris on Wednesday afternoon. All eight members were present: Katie Tamminen; Fay Holt; Doris Hayes; Anna Jarvenpaa; Helen Chojnacki; Ruth Hastings; Etta Morris and I.

A sprinkle of snow on Friday reminds us of what is coming. Tuesday, I was at the hospital for a blood test, the doctor's office for shots and then the dentist for work so the holiday was no fun for me.

Katherine Hakala has returned home from the hospital.

Fred Curtis and sons are at their camp in Bingham for hunting.

Our callers this week have been: Mr. and Mrs. Franze Mills, Shapleigh; Sharon Britton, her mother and sisters, South Paris.

Raymond Hakala, Connecticut, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hakala the first part of the week.

"Jackie" Cotton had a "Sarah Coventry" party at her home Friday evening. She had a good attendance and good sales.

Lucy Bragg, West Peru, was at her mother's, Eva Felton's on Saturday and also called to see her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis.

Doris Hayes plans to visit her brother, Gerald Cole, at Sebago today, Monday, before he leaves for Florida on Thursday.

I attended the meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma at North Waterford, Friday, evening.

We called on Sylvia Luxton, Bethel, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks, West Paris, this week.

The Hayes boys and their families, Ardell, Auburn; Glenn, Gray; Duane, West Paris, have been at

South Woodstock

— Olive Davis, Corres. —

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Thompson and grandson, Karl MacLeod, visited Tuesday with their daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Clements, and family. They attended the hunters supper with them also which was held that evening.

Wayne Hutchins, Saco, visited with Nicholas Clements Tuesday. They spent the day hunting.

The Willing Workers hunters supper held at the Union Church was very well attended and a good sum was earned to carry on their charity work. Many thanks to those who attended and those who helped in serving the meal.

The Johnson family were here Saturday to close up their cottage for the winter. They called on the Hayes Homestead over the week end holiday.

David, U. M., Orono, and Ann, Bethel, were at their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt's, over the week end.

Doris Hayes and I attended the meeting of the Retired Teachers at Telstar on Saturday.

On Monday, Leonas and Fay Holt and I took Ruth Hastings out for supper to celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guyson Davis before returning home Saturday night. There are hunters in most of the camps for the deer season.

Mrs. Lillian Harmon and Olive Davis were in Bridgton Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews for dinner.

Callers this week at the Olive Davis home were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bryant and Mary Billings, Bryant Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Bowen, Framingham, Mass., spent the week end visiting with her mother, Mrs. Miriam Morgan and relatives, Kelly Bowen, and friend, Georgia, were here also.

A pot luck dinner was served at the Union Church, Sunday, by Mrs. James Mason and helpers, for the benefit of the Adventist Church School.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Tibbetts took Mr. and Mrs. Guyson Davis, Mrs. Mary Brown and Mrs. Marion Tibbetts out to supper Saturday evening at Jordan's Restaurant, Locke Mills.

Erlon Twitchell shot a nine-point buck, woods dressed 210 pounds. Joe Stowell got a five point buck.

Many hunters are in the woods at present I hope all will be careful and look before they shoot. It's better to lose a deer than get a man or other innocent animals. I notice the Campbells have been decorating their black pony with fluorescent collar around his neck. He is in the pasture back of our house. That's too close for hunters to come and I hope they will be very careful where they are shooting.

Some helped on the Senior Citizens dinner at Bryant Pond and at West Paris from this area the past week.

A deer was seen hanging up by Richard Felt trapped two large coyotes this last week. Maybe that's why deer are scarce here. The hunters on Hendrickson Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell entertained at a birthday party

Sunday afternoon held for Niki Burnham and Diana Poland whose birthdays fell on the 18th and 13th respectively. Refreshments of sandwiches, punch, ice cream, and a cake for each child were served. The little girls, Diana, one year old, and Niki, three years, received birthday gifts from the group. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. James Knights, grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Knights, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Billings and son, Andrew, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ross and Rebecca, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Burnham and Niki, Mr. and Mrs. Todd Poland and Diana, Jeffrey and Judy Campbell, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell.
